We certify that:
1. The salary to be paid to the employee is equivalent to other US workers in the same classification.
2. The vacation time, sick leave, and other benefits offered to the visa holder are equivalent to that offered to other US workers in the same classification.
3. Employing the visa holder will not adversely affect the working conditions of similarly employed workers.

EXPORT CONTROL COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION

Any employer petitioning for a nonimmigrant employee in the H-1B visa category must certify on Form I-129 that it has reviewed export control regulations and determined that:

A) No license is required from the U.S. government for transfer or release of any technology or technical data; or
B) A federal license is required and the employer will prevent access of the export controlled technology or technical data by the employee until the required license is obtained.

Export Control law encompasses the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR; overseen by the U.S. Department of State) and the Export Administration Regulations (EAR; overseen by the U.S. Department of Commerce). These regulations ensure that controlled military or dual-use equipment, technical data, or software are not improperly exported (i.e. transferred or released) to foreign nationals. Additionally, transfer or release of export controlled material to foreign nationals working on campus is subject to the same regulations; it is referred to as a “deemed export”.

This questionnaire will help UCSB Office of Research (O.R.) Export Control staff ensure that you are complying with U.S. law. This certification should be completed by the individual who will be supervising the H-1B employee or who is otherwise knowledgeable about the H-1B employee’s intended work.

Will the visa beneficiary be working in the biomedical sciences, computer sciences, space sciences, engineering, or other scientific or technological discipline? Check one.

☑ No. Please sign and date below.

☑ Yes. Please check all boxes that apply to the research activities on which the H-1B employee will be working. If any of the first three boxes are checked, then you must obtain signature from a member of O.R.’s Export Control staff (see below for contact information).

☑ Restricts or prohibits the participation of any foreign persons.
☑ Restricts or prohibits the right to publish any of the data or research results.
☑ The H-1B employee will be provided access to (check all that apply):
  ☑ Technical information, equipment, or software that has been deemed as “export controlled”,
  ☑ Equipment specifically designed or developed for military or space applications,
  ☑ Sponsor or third-party proprietary or confidential information, materials, or software; or ☑ Non-publicly available encryption source code.
☑ There are no restrictions on the research activities.
☑ This project does not involve export controlled items, technical data, or software.
Supervisor/PI Certification

I am familiar with the job duties and other particulars of employment of the visa beneficiary listed above and hereby affirm that the contents of the foregoing certification are true, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
