

Happy 2026 Global Gauchos,

As we step into 2026, the Office of Students and Scholars is energized to continue our work in supporting UCSB's diverse international population.

Our commitment goes beyond visa and immigration matters; we are here to champion a global academic community where international and domestic members thrive together. Through advocacy, regulatory expertise, and cross-cultural collaborations, we strive to make the transition to campus life as seamless as possible. We believe that by fostering these inclusive partnerships, we are helping shape the global leaders of tomorrow. Thank you for being part of our story—we can't wait to see what we achieve together this year.

Warmly,

The OISS Team

New Student Requirements

---

OISS extends a warm welcome to our new international students. We hope your travels went well. Please be sure to complete your required immigration check-in. Both local address and arrival documents are required.

Immigration Reminders

Are you enrolled full-time yet? Be sure to register in a full course load to maintain your visa status this quarter. Grad students need at least 8 units and undergraduate students need at least 12 units. If you need assistance registering for classes, please contact an academic advisor in your college. If you are a J-1 visa holder with UCSB's Education Abroad Reciprocity Program, please contact your EAP advisor for academic questions.

There are only a few government-approved exceptions to the full-time enrollment rule. Learn more about academic reduced course loads, medical reduced course loads, and filing leaves eligibility on our Academic Requirements page. Students must obtain approval from OISS before dropping below full-time enrollment.

If you qualify, be sure to submit your request via UCSB Global at least two weeks before the end of the quarter. The sooner, the better!

Employment authorization is mandatory for all J-1 students (EAP or grad student) for any type of work. Before beginning an on campus position or off campus (Academic Training) position, employment authorization is required.

Welcome International Scholars

Dear International Scholars,

On behalf of OISS Scholar Advisor Team, we would like to wish you a Happy New Year! May 2026 be filled with good health, happiness, and peace.

To our international scholars and their families who just arrived in the U.S., we are thrilled to welcome you to our campus and community. We hope you will be able to make UCSB your home away from home. Please don't hesitate to contact us should you have any questions or concerns. We are here to assist you.

To our international scholars who traveled abroad during the break, welcome back! We hope your journey back to the US was smooth and uneventful. Please make sure to retrieve your most recent I-94 to ensure you were readmitted in J-1 status.

To our international scholars who stayed in the US, we hope you were able to travel and explore new landscapes and cities.

Finally, to our international scholars whose programs are coming to an end, we wish you safe travels back home and hope your visit at UCSB met your expectations.

Kindly,

Felipe, Mavel, and Virginie

Tax reminder for J-1 Visa Holders

As a reminder, J-1 visa holders are required to file a U.S. tax return with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) each year if they received U.S.-source income. J-2 dependents who have been employed must also file. J-1s and J-2s who were physically present in the U.S. must file Form 8843, even if they had no U.S. income. For more information, please visit our website.

Proposed “Duration of Status” Elimination

Thank you to everyone who has reached out to share their support and concerns regarding potential changes to the Duration of Status (D/S) regulations for F-1 and J-1 visa holders. Please know that OISS is monitoring these developments very closely. We are committed to keeping our international students, scholars, and campus partners informed with timely, relevant updates.

Current Status vs. Proposed Changes

Currently, F-1 and J-1 visitors are admitted for "Duration of Status," allowing them to remain in the U.S. as long as they maintain their immigration requirements. The proposed rule suggests a shift toward a more restrictive model:

- Fixed End Dates: A maximum initial stay of 4 years.
- Formal Extensions: Requiring a filing with USCIS if more than 4 years are needed to complete a program.
- Major Limitations: New restrictions on changing majors for both undergraduate and graduate students.

Our Commitment

It is important to remember that this is currently only a proposal. No changes have been finalized. The University of California system has already submitted a formal comment expressing our position on this matter, which you can read here.

While we cannot yet advise on the specific details of a rule that has not been enacted, we are here to support you. If you have questions, please reach out to our office, and we will provide as much context and clarity as possible.
